Hi Cheliyan,

This is to inform you that I have deposited $360.00 to our VCCOSA bank account on June 4th 2013.

There was some delay due to finding time to go to the TD bank. We are all searching for one thing or another in life. Some of us are searching for our future while some are rendering love and care through selfless service. At some point we all will realize that service to people is service to God.

Your committee under your guidance is undertaking meaning full projects, setting example to other organization. I wish you all the best. I thank your team for their hard work and dedication.

With Kind Regards,
Vimal. (Dr. Pon Vimalendran)
